

Proclamation

WHEREAS, The Project Management Institute (PMI) is the world's leading not-for-profit membership association for the project management profession, with more than half a million members and credential holders in 185 countries; and

WHEREAS, The Honolulu Chapter was established in 1997 with 25 members and the chapter received their Chapter Charter certificate on June 5, 1998. Membership has grown to over 800+ members in 2020; and

WHEREAS, The Honolulu Chapter decided to conduct virtual seminars, which helped novice professionals be certified as project management professionals (PMP); and

WHEREAS, the mission of PMI is to promote the project management practice and profession through networking, sharing of project experiences, training, education, and certification in the State of Hawai'i; and

WHEREAS, the vision of PMI is to have a growing and engaged chapter recognized for excellence and delivering value to the project management community; and

WHEREAS, worldwide advocacy for project management is supported by globally-recognized standards and credentials, an extensive research program, and professional development opportunities;

THEREFORE I, DAVID Y. IGE, Governor of the State of Hawai'i, do hereby proclaim November 15-19, 2021 as in Hawai'i and ask the people of the Aloha State to recognize the importance of professional development for these Hawai'i-based project management professionals.

"Project Management Professional Development Week"

Done at the State Capitol in the Executive Chambers, Honolulu, State of Hawai'i, this fifteenth day of November 2021.

DAVID Y. IGE
Governor, State of Hawai'i
