PMI-HI will be conducting an IN-PERSON event for PDD.

The VP Programs Board of Director or current President of the PMI Hawaii Chapter retains the right to change or cancel your speaker time slot(s) or title(s). Any such changes will be communicated with as much advance notice as possible to mitigate any inconvenience it may cause.

You acknowledge you are not authorized to speak or act on behalf of PMI-HI, the PDD conference or the conference planning committee. Under no circumstances are you authorized to commit PMI-HI, the PDD conference or the conference planning committee to any obligation (fiscal or otherwise). Any expense or fiscal obligation initiated by a speaker is the sole responsibility of the speaker.

We plan to record your session. The recordings of your session, including any presentations and/or supporting materials may be shared in the following ways:

- Via PMI-HI’s website or another platform online,
- Via broadcast, such as on television, a limited number of times,
- Available online on demand for video streaming for up to 2 years,
- In small video segments of 10 minutes or less with no limitations,
- In PMI-HI’s library.

PMI-HI may share your name, contact information, photo/image, and your session topic in the following ways:

- To promote the event on any promotional materials,
- On social media,
- On PMI-HI’s website,
- On PDD’s On Demand platform,
- In any articles or materials, virtual or otherwise, recapping the event,
- For future marketing materials.

If you do NOT consent to recording or sharing, kindly communicate your preferences to the chapter and planning committee then wait for direction. Do not sign this document at this time.
